Purpose of CIPH Women's Network

The purpose of the CIPH Women's Network is to support the professional development of women within Canada's plumbing and heating industry, and to enhance member companies' opportunities to attract, develop and retain more high-performing female employees. The Network will do this by offering a variety of programs and events to women employed by CIPH members, such as: Skills Development/Industry Education & Training/Professional & Personal Goal Achievement/Networking/Mentorship/Leadership
