

Donna J Inman, California

Donna has been in escrow since 1976 – she was 2 years old at the time.

In those few years she has been an escrow officer, a title company county manager, an auditor, a compliance officer, an instructor and various other related positions.

A native of California, she has lived in Colorado and Hawaii.

She was instrumental in the formation of CACC, Inc. and two of its chapters – Northern Colorado and Ski Country. She holds the Professional Designations of Certified Real Estate Closer (1981) and Certified Senior Real Estate Closer (1992) from CACC, Inc.

She is a past President of the Colorado Association of Certified Closers, Inc. (1993/1994) and a member of its Hall of Fame (1996).

Donna was the 2013 President of the California Escrow Association. She holds a Certified Senior Escrow Officer (1998) and a Certified Escrow Instructor (1999) credential from CEA.

She is currently the Third Vice President and Membership Committee Chair. She previously served as the AEA Education Committee Chair and the CEA Director to AEA. A long time ago, in a galaxy far, far away she served on the AEA Board; serving one term as the Treasurer (1995/1996) and two terms as the Secretary (1996/1997 and 1998/1999). Donna holds the AEA Senior American Settlement Industry Professional designation (2014).

Donna earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree with a major in English (1975). She also has a Master's Degree in Education (2005).

At home she is the obedient servant of Shadow, The Cat and Phoebe, the Phantom Cat.
