

F. Governmental Member

Governmental Member - A Governmental Member shall be a governmental unit, department or agency engaged in the administration, formulation, implementation or enforcement of laws, ordinances, rules or regulations relating to the public health, safety and welfare. While each Governmental Member may have an unlimited number of “non-voting” members, it shall designate the primary Voting Governmental Representative(s) according to the chart below.

Governmental Member Voting Representatives – Each Governmental Member may exercise the right to vote through its designated Voting Representatives and shall be entitled to the number of votes as specified in the table below. Voting Representatives shall be full or part time employees or officials of the Governmental Member actively engaged in the administration; formulation; implementation; or enforcement of laws, ordinances, rules and regulations relating to the public health, safety and welfare.

Voting Representative designations and/or changes shall be submitted in writing to the current 3rd Vice-President of the American Association of Code Enforcement in charge of membership.

A Governmental Voting Representative who has already voted in an AACE election may not transfer his/her voting rights until after election results are reported to the AACE membership.

*Population	Voting Members	Fees
0 to 25,000	2	$100
25,001 to 50,000	4	$250
50,001 to 150,000	6	$400
150,001 to 300,000	10	$700
300,001 and over	12	$850

* Data from most current United States census survey shall be used to determine population of a Governmental Member.

Are you interested in the new Governmental Membership because it will save you some money and allow more code officers from your jurisdiction to join, get involved, and enjoy the benefits AACE has to offer?

Then sign up now and Join AACE! Click here and scroll to the bottom of the page!