

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THERIOGENOLOGISTS
RESIDENCY TRAINING PROGRAM REGISTRATION

Date:

Institution/Practice:

Program director:

Must be a Diplomate of the ACT, ECAR, or Fellow of the ANZCVS (Animal Reproduction)

Program Director's contact information:

Work Phone:

Fax:

E-mail:

Mailing address:

Program(s) being registered (Please check all that apply):

Comparative Theriogenology

Biotechnology

Ruminants

Equine

Small animals

Swine

Other

Please complete the following page for each program considered for registration. Make additional copies as necessary.

Location of training program:

Primary site:

Secondary site (if applicable):

Other sites (if applicable):

Length of training (minimum 104 weeks):

Length of effective clinical experience (minimum 60 weeks):

Advanced degree:

Masters:      YES  or NO

PhD:            YES  or NO

Resident advisor (Must be a board certified theriogenologist):

Supervising theriogenologists: A minimum of 2 are required.

List all Diplomates of specialty colleges, besides those already listed, involved in the theriogenology residency training:

Specialty	Name	Role in training
ACT
ACVIM
ACVR
ACVP
ACVS

Supervised rounds (please describe):

Frequency
Supervision

Formal journal clubs and seminars:

Frequency
Supervision

Presentations at conferences or in an educational setting: The resident must give at least one presentation/lecture in the field of Theriogenology must be given to a veterinary or veterinary student group during the training program for ACT certification. The presentation/lecture must include a manuscript/notes/handout and visual aids

Required:                YES  or        NO

Frequency (number per year):

Audience type and number

Breeders        _____

Veterinary students _____

Veterinarians _____

Other        _____

Veterinary medical meetings each resident is expected to attend:

Other:

Research project:

Required:    Yes  or   No

Publication(s) – Please give a brief description of the publication requirement:

Required Number for ACT certification: One peer reviewed first author manuscript published or accepted for publication in an approved.

Are all equipment and facility requirements available? Refer to the General Information Guide Section E.1.a for details. Please provide narrative description of how deficiencies in equipment and facilities will be corrected.