#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Feminist Aesthetics of the Future	7/1/2021 1:45 PM
2	Art and Gender (with an emphasis on opening up the label of 'feminism' to move away from the gender binary)	6/29/2021 6:44 PM
3	The Future of Feminist Aesthetics	6/28/2021 9:53 AM
4	Maybe something on Dimensions of Feminism or new directions in Feminist Thought	6/28/2021 12:06 AM
5	No preference for a different topic in 2022. I was very impressed by the diversity present in participants and various research expanded upon at the meeting this year.	6/27/2021 5:32 AM
6	On future of feminist art and the gaps between the aspect of recent feminist theories and traditional in Aesthetics.	6/27/2021 4:10 AM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Nicely spaced over two days and an array of speakers. Well done! I do think attendance suffered because everyone's exhausted from zooming over the past year, but a future summerfest is still worth doing.	7/1/2021 1:45 PM
2	I unfortunately was limited in when I could attend this summer, due to childcare responsibilities among other things, but I very much enjoyed the sessions I went to and found the atmosphere welcoming. The one thing I would urge (as my suggestion above may have made clear) is that the caucus should shift away from a focus specifically on women and embrace non-binary and trans folk as well.	6/29/2021 6:44 PM
3	N/A	6/28/2021 9:53 AM
4	The section I attended was very open, non confrontational, and productive. The questions were generative and advanced the discussion.	6/28/2021 12:06 AM
5	I was encouraged by how welcoming the meeting was on an interpersonal level and in the constructive feedback provided to presenters to continue their work. The climate was positive which made attending, or submitting work to future meetings, more attractive.	6/27/2021 5:32 AM
6	I didn't care about the climate of the meeting.	6/27/2021 4:10 AM
7	There was nothing problematic. It was excellent. Every session was engaging. I learned a lot and enjoyed the sessions very much.	6/26/2021 6:34 PM

Q19 What were the most beneficial elements of the meeting for you professionally?

Answered: 9 Skipped: 1

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Diversity of participants and topics	7/1/2021 1:45 PM
2	I really enjoyed hearing the end of Naharin Shech's talk and ended up visiting her website, sending feedback on her work, and creating a connection there. But I think Peg Brand Weiser's talk was more important, since it lit a fire under me and inspired me to do more actively feminist (or gender-related) theorizing in aesthetics. Thanks!	6/29/2021 6:44 PM
3	Hearing the research of others that intersected with my research.	6/28/2021 9:53 AM
4	Exposure to topics in feminist aesthetics and to hear work by early career scholars	6/28/2021 12:06 AM
5	Dialogue with colleagues	6/27/2021 10:25 AM
6	I benefited from the meeting in hearing speakers talk on a variety of subjects (some of which I had competency in, some completely new) that I feel will enhance my teaching and own research.	6/27/2021 5:32 AM
7	For understanding of recent feminist art widely. such as from professional to artistic activism, also it might be the topic of aesthetical 'anorexia nervosa' in the contemporary society.	6/27/2021 4:10 AM
8	The sessions expanded my horizons and connected to my broad interests. I also like the virtual format, since my institution provides very little funding for professional development. I would be very unlikely to be able to attend an in-person meeting out of my home state.	6/26/2021 6:34 PM
9	I find the community building very helpful.	6/26/2021 4:18 PM

Q20 What were the least beneficial elements of the meeting for you professionally?

Answered: 7 Skipped: 3

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	I was disappointed that there were too few questions and comments.	7/1/2021 1:45 PM
2	I honestly can't think of any. I just wish I had been able to attend more sessions!	6/29/2021 6:44 PM
3	N/A	6/28/2021 9:53 AM
4	n/a	6/28/2021 12:06 AM
5	I positively benefited from attending the meeting. The only feedback I have is that, if I were to submit work and be selected to present/participate in future events, I would want to know more about how the recordings would be used. Are they posted publicly by the ASA? Are they for use by the society/members? Apologies if this was included in the event information and was overlooked.	6/27/2021 5:32 AM
6	Each topic was important.	6/27/2021 4:10 AM
7	None	6/26/2021 6:34 PM

Q21 What could the ASA FCC do to improve future meetings?

Answered: 7 Skipped: 3

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	New topic for next year.	7/1/2021 1:45 PM
2	Now I'm just repeating myself, but I do think it could be made more inclusive of non-binary and trans folk. Perhaps actively seeking out trans people to join the caucus would be a good place to start. It might even be worth rebranding with a more inclusive term than 'feminist'?	6/29/2021 6:44 PM
3	Perhaps bring in a feminist artist for a talk in order to encourage interdisciplinarity (we did have an artist as a speaker but perhaps pay an artist to come in to give a talk).	6/28/2021 9:53 AM
4	This felt solid from the range of topics to the number of panels and presentations. Great format for a smaller summer conference/workshop	6/28/2021 12:06 AM
5	I was pleased by the culture and atmosphere at the meeting. The only suggested improvement was to make explicit what the recording of the meeting would be used for (again, apologies if this was outlined somewhere and I missed it!).	6/27/2021 5:32 AM
6	I have no idea at this moment.	6/27/2021 4:10 AM
7	Nothing, really. This was one of the best meetings that I have attended.	6/26/2021 6:34 PM
