LEAD A CHAPTER MEETING

Do you have an exciting project under way or were you part of a team of a recently completed building, and would like to arrange a tour for the AIA members? We have opportunities to showcase your work via a chapter meeting. Please check below the time of year you might be interested in and also the building/home/project. A member of the Programs Committee will be in contact with you. AIA Continuing Education Units (CEU's) will be earned for participants and learning objectives will have to be supplied.

HOST A LUNCH AND LEARN or WEBINAR

Our chapter hosts Lunch and Learns and Webinars. In the past they have been live one-hour lunch seminars. We also offer online webinars at lunchtime. We believe webinars will attract more people immediately, but also will attract online learners who access our education library at their convenience. If you are interested in sharing the latest research, techniques or technology related to your area of expertise, please consider being a lunchtime host. Hosting a Lunch and Learn is a benefit of membership. If you are a non-member the cost is $250. If you are a member, there is no charge. AIA Continuing Education Units (CEU's) will be earned for participants and learning objectives will have to be supplied.

[ ] Yes, please contact me regarding a Lunch and Learn or Webinar that I would like to present to members.
