The Professional Geologist is published six issues annually by the American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG). It was founded in 1963 to promote the professional responsibility and public service, and is the ombudsman for cal scientists in all branches of the science. It adheres to the principles of professional Geologist, to provide certification for geologists to establish a standard of excellence for the profession. Since then, more than 10,000 American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG) is the only national organization that certifies the competence and ethical conduct of geologists to establish a standard of excellence for the profession. Since then, more than 10,000 individuals have demonstrated their commitment to the highest levels of competence and ethical conduct and been certified by AIPG.
