On the Cover: 2022 Photo Contest Geological Disaster Winner: Lawn Lake flood fan where the Roaring River meets the Fall River, Rocky Mountain National Park

Description: The Lawn Lake Dam failed in 1982 causing a flood on the Roaring River and then down the Fall River through the town of Estes Park, Colorado. Even today, this flood fan is a dramatic stop on the Fall River Loop of Trail Ridge Road through the Park. Taken: September 2001

AIPG encourages submission of articles and editorials for publication in TPG on topics related to the science and profession of geology. Submittals shall be of interest to the members of AIPG, other professional geologists, and others interested in the earth sciences. Articles and editorials may be noted as follows at the discretion of the Editor. “The opinions, positions and conclusions presented herein are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the opinions, positions or conclusions of the American Institute of Professional Geologists.” All materials submitted for publication, including author opinions contained therein, shall include accurate and appropriate references. The Editor has the authority to solicit, edit, accept or reject articles and editorials and other written material for publication. The Executive Committee has the authority to act on any particular case to support or overrule actions of the Editor regarding the solicitation, editing, acceptance, or rejection of any particular article, editorial, or other written material for publication.

The mission of the American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG) is to be an effective advocate for the profession of geology and to serve its members through activities and programs that support continuing professional development and promote high standards of ethical conduct.

The Professional Geologist (USPS 590-810 and ISSN 0279-0521) is published quarterly by the American Institute of Professional Geologists, 1333 W. 120th Avenue, Suite 211, Westminster, CO 80234-2710. Periodicals Postage Paid at Denver, Colorado and additional mailing offices.

Editor, “The Professional Geologist.” The opinions, positions and conclusions presented herein are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the opinions, positions or conclusions of the American Institute of Professional Geologists. Submissions shall be of interest to the members of AIPG, other professional geologists, and others interested in the earth sciences.
