2020 Summer CPE Series | Virtual Training

Tuesday, July 14 | 1:00 – 4:00 p.m. ET
Local government auditing is an important public service. As audit shops adapt to COVID-19, it has never been more important for auditors to grow and maintain professional and personal skills.

ALGA has developed a Summer CPE Series for 2020. We want to make sure our members have access to continuing professional education. This is especially needed since in-person training is not available, and many shops are facing additional budget pressures.

The Summer CPE Series provides our members with an opportunity to earn up to 22 credits of NASBA-certified CPE at a highly-discounted rate of $10 per CPE credit. These deep discounts are only available this summer, so don’t miss this opportunity to get extra benefit from your ALGA membership!

SESSION 1

Demonstrating Our Value: Identifying Significant Savings Opportunities in Audits
(Auditing-Governmental) 1 CPE

This session will cover the common themes and approaches the City of Toronto Auditor General’s Office uses to identify and report on significant cost savings and revenues in government operations. The presentation will provide examples of previous audits that made recommendations to minimize costs, increase revenues, and identify new revenue streams.

Ina Chan, Assistant Auditor General, City of Toronto Auditor General’s Office
Niroshani Movchovitch, Senior Audit Manager, City of Toronto Auditor General’s Office

Participant Learning Objectives:
• Recognize the common themes to identify savings opportunities in audits.
• Identify types of audits to include in future audit plans where savings opportunities typically arise.
• Consider ways to effectively demonstrate the value and impact of performance audits.

BREAK

2:05 – 2:55 p.m. ET
SESSION 2

Contract and Vendor Management:
Understanding the Risks, Controls, and Strategies for Appropriate Monitoring
(Business Management & Organization) 1 CPE

Any organization that has portions of its business conducted by another party inherently faces control, revenue, and expense risks. Today, organizations are utilizing and engaging in far more third-party contracts and relationships. As an increasing number of organizations are engaging in these relationships, trends are occurring where payments and receipts are based upon self-declarations or self-reporting. Problems arise when risks associated with these relationships are not properly monitored and evaluated.

Sean Walker, Principal, CLA
Jim Kreiser, CLA

Participant Learning Objectives:
• Understand possible risks to consider when undertaking a third-party vendor relationship.
• Know how to properly monitor and evaluate relationships with vendors.

2:55 - 3:05 p.m. ET
BREAK

3:05 – 3:55 p.m. ET
SESSION 3

Where is the Accountability Profession Heading:
Get Comfortable with Being Uncomfortable
(Personal Development) 1 CPE

The pace of change will never be slower than it is today. Learn how to future proof yourself and your organization to add value and enhance sustainability.

Ernie Almonte, Partner, RSM

Participant Learning Objectives:
• Understand the change horizon for the accountability profession.
• Be equipped with knowledge to confront and adapt to an ever-changing work environment.

3:55 - 4:00 p.m. ET
