Those wishing to participate in the sharing economy and room with one, two, or three other conference attendees can participate in AMATYC’s Roommate Network. Click here and complete the Roommate Request Form no later than October 1, 2022. You should be notified within two business days if your request has been received. If you do not receive such an email acknowledgement, please contact Sarah Miller at smiller10@ccbcmd.edu.

The process will involve putting you in touch with another AMATYC member (or members) wishing to share a room. It will be up to you to finalize the arrangement and send an acknowledgement to Sarah.

Note: The roommate service does not make hotel reservations, so it would be very helpful if you already have one, even if one of the roommates may have to process a cancellation. Also, when making a reservation with one or more roommates, be sure to provide the hotel with the names and contact information of all individuals staying in the room.

Why is it Important to Stay in the Conference Host Hotel?

We need your help! If you are coming to the AMATYC Annual Conference in Toronto, please consider staying at the Sheraton Centre Toronto, our host hotel. Why?

- Attendees staying at the host hotel have better opportunities to further network with colleagues.
- Staying at the host hotel also allows attendees to more easily return to their guest room as needed.
- Fulfilling a contracted room block ensures that AMATYC does not incur attrition penalties
