- Personal and advertising injury limit
- Medical expense limit
- Fire legal liability limit
- MEDEFENSE(tm) Plus
- e-MD(tm) Cyber Liability
- Sexual Misconduct and Molestation Liability
- Defense Outside the Limit of Liability
- Coverage for both employees and independent contractors
- Automatic coverage for Medical Director's administrative duties, good faith exams and incidental patient care

- Short, straight-forward application process

* Coverage may vary by state, subject to underwriting approval

* Coverage is written on Lloyds' of London paper, an A.M. Best "A" Rated Company

Professional Medical Insurance Services provides brokerage, risk management and consulting services exclusively to healthcare providers. There are very few brokerages in the country that work only with medical professionals and facilities, and with close to $90 million in premiums, PMIS is one of the largest. As with any highly technical field, specialization is an important component in their ability to deliver the highest level of expertise and service to their clients. The American Med Spa Association was created for the express purpose of educating the medical spa community regarding the laws and regulations governing this industry in each state and providing comprehensive, relevant, timely resources and education. AmSpa has partnered with lawyers across the country to develop a network of qualified, specialized attorneys that provide much needed guidance to the med spa industry at significant discounts to our members. In addition to providing specific answers to commonly asked questions on specific regulations, AmSpa also provides its members with an industry specific job board, advertising discounts, training courses, insurance, banking, credit card acceptance, consulting services and products.
