

Your Student Loan Investment

The workshop discusses the four main topics you need to know about student loans and setting yourself up financially post-graduation: deferment, what to do before and after graduation, repayment strategies, and implementing your repayment strategy. Each attendee will build their profile prior to the workshop so they can apply what is being discussed to their own situation. Please plan to bring your laptop.