

2

MODULE 2

The Legal Infrastructure of Public Health

Quiz

Scott Burris, JD
Professor of Law
Beasley School of Law, Temple University

Questions

- Identify the three types of public health law.
- The comprehensive analysis of the modifiable factors contributing to motor vehicle crashes is known as:
- “Law” from an implementation perspective can be said to consist of “law on the books” and at least three other distinct elements. List them:
- Identify the two items on the list of Ten Essential Public Health Services that explicitly refer to law or policy: