Truth in Advertising Policy—The AzVMA respectfully requests all advertisers to refrain from making misleading or false representations in ads placed in the Arizona Veterinary News. The AzVMA may use its discretion in calling to the attention of advertisers, legitimate complaints that are factually and indisputably proven to have merit. Complaints must be received in writing and contain the signature of the complainant. The AzVMA also reserves the right to refuse advertising that it deems inappropriate, or offensive.

Advertisements that include references to age, race, color, religion, gender, or national origin or that request photographs of applicants will not be accepted. Acceptance of an advertisement for publication in the AzVMA does not imply endorsement of the product or service by AzVMA. Insertions (classified or display ads) subject to space availability—first come, first served.
