

KIMBERLY M. PERKINS

Kimberly M. Perkins, a native of Alabama, holds a Juris Doctor from the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University and a Masters of Law (LL.M.) from the University of Alabama School of Law. She is an attorney at Lloyd & Hogan, P.C. where her practice focuses on civil litigation including personal injury, motor vehicle accidents and landlord tenant law.

Kimberly is admitted to practice law before state and federal courts in Alabama, as well as the District of Columbia. Her peers have repeatedly recognized her as a “Top Attorney” in Birmingham Magazine, B Metro Magazine and SuperLawyers.

Kimberly is a member of the Birmingham Bar Association, where she currently sits on the Executive Committee. Previously within the Birmingham Bar, she has served on the Young Lawyers Section Executive Committee (2011-2015), Birmingham Bar Annual Retreat Committee (2013-2017), and the BBA Building Task Force. Kimberly is also a member of the American Association For Justice and the Alabama Association For Justice.