

BOAF Members-Only Discussion Forum

Welcome to the BOAF Discussion Forum. This members-only forum is integrated with the BOAF website. The forum is accessible to all State Members and is searchable.

ACCESS

Access the Discussion Forum from the Resources menu on the BOAF website. You may also bookmark the url: https://boaf.net/forums_engagement/Topics.aspx?forum=218826

Login using your email address and password. If you don't know your password, click the link to reset your password (be sure to use the email address where you receive BOAF emails and check your spam folder).

Member and Customer Login

Welcome to the online community. Because of the built-in security feature you must first register before accessing many site sections. If you are not registered on the site yet, please register - we'd love you to be part of our online community.

Use your email address as your sign-in.

If you do not know your password, click the "forgot your password" link.

Passwords must be between 8 and 20 characters in length and contain at least one number and one non-numeric character (letters, punctuation, et (ex: abcd1234, tonytiger)).

If you are an existing member or customer and experience difficulties login please contact BOAF at 407-804-1001 or info@boaf.net. Please do not add your information to the database if you have an existing member or customer account with BOAF, this will create a duplicate non-member record.

Additionally, when you are logged in to your member profile on the BOAF website, you may access the Discussion Forum from the Quick Links dropdown.

Forum VS Thread

A discussion board (known also by various other names such as discussion group, discussion forum, message board, and online forum) is a general term for any online "bulletin board" where you can leave and expect to see responses to messages you have left. Or you can just read the board.

The forum is made up of threads that are topical discussion items contained in the forum.

Unlike antiquated listservs that are emailed to subscribers, new members have access to the forum discussions that have already occurred and can quickly catch up.

SUBSCRIBE TO INSTANT UPDATES OR DIGEST

You may log in to the Discussion Forum at your convenience to check for new posts and discussion topics. Click on the Forum Actions dropdown menu to subscribe to Instant Updates or to a Digest that will be emailed daily.

On the Forum Actions dropdown, click on the Subscribe to Instant Updates link to receive an email with each new post.

To subscribe to the daily Digest or unsubscribe from Instant Updates, click on My Subscription & Settings. This page also contains a Forum Signature box for you to complete.

Populate the Forum Signature box with as much or as little contact information that you want included on your posts.

NEW DISCUSSION TOPICS

To start a new topical discussion on the forum, click the +New Topic link

When starting a new topic, name the thread in the subject line. Make it count – be specific enough that new readers will know exactly what this discussion item is about.

Unlike the previous listserv, this discussion forum allows you to upload up to ten files of supporting documents.

A screenshot of the BOAF Discussion Group Forum interface showing the "New Topic" form. The form has a "Subject:*" field with the placeholder text "New Discussion Subject Here - Make it Count!". Below the subject field is a large text area for the post content, with the placeholder text "Post here about the new item you wish you discuss.". A blue link "Switch to Full Text Editor" is located below the text area. Below the text area is a section for "Attach Image(s) and/or File(s)" with a large area containing a red arrow pointing to a "Drop photos here or click to upload" prompt. At the bottom of the form, there is a note: "Note: Only 10 files can be uploaded at a time." and two buttons: "Submit Post" and "Cancel".

VIEWING AND REPLYING TO POSTS

When logged in, users may reply to posts by typing their comments and clicking the Submit Quick Reply button. To reply with the ability to upload files, click the Reply Using Full Editor Link.

The image shows a user interface for replying to a post. It features a large, empty text input box with a light gray border and a placeholder text "Type quick reply...". Below the input box are two buttons. The first button is blue with white text and is labeled "Submit Quick Reply". The second button is light blue with dark blue text and is labeled "Reply Using Full Editor".

Subscribers to Instant Updates will receive an email shortly after the item is posted that is specific to that post.

Clicking the Permalink in the email will take the user directly to that post on the BOAF Website.

There is also a link in the Instant Update email that will take the user to the homepage of the Discussion Forum.

Users may unsubscribe through a link included in the email.

1) Once off the forums page, such as at subscriptions, there is no link on the top menu to go back to the home forum page (forum index page) - the Home under quick links goes to the BOAF home page 2) I don't see an easy way to subscribe...
