

Sandy Ching

Sandy Ching spent many years volunteering for CEDPA/CETPA before being elected to the Board of Directors. Her cheerful demeanor always brightens up a room. Sandy always made sure everyone was whole and ready to go. She loves data and her work helped the organization determine what topics were needed and which vendors needed to be at our show. Sandy was part of the organization before there were staff, so her work helped ensure that the conference was successful.

