

The Committee – Gail Kaufman

Gail Kaufman, VP eBusiness, Wolseley Canada

Gail has spent most of her career between the automotive and plumbing & HVAC sectors and is interested in helping women find their own path to success. With extensive experience in both B2B and B2C environments, Gail has worked both in wholesale distribution and manufacturing with market-leading brands. Gail also has extensive international experience having led the development, management and multi-channel expansion of a portfolio of products (while with Shell) in Europe, Asia and Latin America. Gail has been a Director on the national board of the Canadian Institute of Plumbing & Heating since 2012, is currently a member of the Executive/Finance Committee and Chairman of the Wholesalers Division. A graduate of the University of Western Ontario, Gail also studied at the University of Virginia, Darden School of Business and the International Institute for Management Development in Switzerland.