

The Committee – Mélanie Schwery

Mélanie Schwery is a graduate from UQAM in Communication. After graduating, she joined the Plumbing & Heating Industry in 2006 on the Wholesale trade side. She began her career in sales in the B2B industrial market. She worked for several companies that allowed her to enhance her skills, such as Maburco and Emco. In 2015, she was motivated and up to the challenge to further enhance her career by gearing it towards the manufacturing aspect by leading the Canadian Sales & Marketing team. This has led her to her current position that she holds of National Sales & Marketing Director at Belanger-UPT.

In addition to her work commitments, Melanie contributes her time to charitable organizations including Montreal food banks. She is well recognized by her peers as being an individual with high energy, passion and strong leadership skills. Melanie takes genuine interest in mentoring employees from her team and work colleagues as she discovers and develops the potential in people to guide them to reach their fullest potential. She constantly goes all-out to achieve excellence and extraordinary results. Melanie is a person that strives every day to lead by example, consistently demonstrating her values of Integrity, Courage and Passion towards her surroundings and takes the time to promote equality and encourages her employees to pursue their goals.
