

Frontline* Publication Guidelines

Frontline is a publication for and about members of the Commissioned Officers Association of the U.S. Public Health Service (COA) and its affiliate, the PHS Commissioned Officers Foundation for the Advancement of Public Health (COF). COA publishes ten issues of Frontline each year.

Inclusion of articles is based on approval, time relevance, and space availability. High priority will be given to articles about members' work/achievements in the field of public health.

Current Members of COA Only:

All authors and officers mentioned in articles must be current COA members or COF donors. It is imperative that this be confirmed prior to submitting an article.

Format:

- Chicago style
- Word format
- Titles in Century Gothic font, size 14
- Article text in double-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font
- Do not exceed a 750-word count
- Provide rank and name of each author

Photos:

- Highly encouraged
- Action photos are preferred
- Use highest resolution available
- Attach images as separate files to your article
