

17 NOV 2014

60
MINUTES

"When you showed U.S. military folks constructing hospitals in Liberia, you did not mention the only U.S. government medical personnel treating Ebola victims there are officers in the U.S. Public Health Service. Their work goes unmentioned far too often."

*Jim Currie, Ph.D.
Executive Director
Commissioned Officers Association of the U.S. Public Health Service
Landover, MD*