

HOLLY MCNAMARA

SELECTMAN / ENGINEER / PRESIDENT OF HYPERLOOP MA

Holly McNamara is a registered Professional Civil Engineer in 5 states, including Massachusetts, with a BS from Cornell University and an MS from UC San Diego in Structural Engineering. She has almost two decades of experience in project management, construction management, engineering design, and due diligence, and currently consults with several clients throughout the country.

In addition to her career, she formed Hyperloop Massachusetts and is the President of the organization that is one of the 35 semifinalists chosen of the 2,600 applicants for the Hyperloop One Global Challenge (now Virgin Hyperloop One). She also has experience forming and working with 501c3 non-profits, as well as event planning and fundraising for many different groups. She had the once-of-a-lifetime experience to work alongside the CEO of Zappos.com to launch his best-selling book in 2010.

Holly was born and raised in Somerset, Massachusetts. She left for graduate school out west in 1999, and after 14 years away, decided to move back to her hometown that raised her, to plant roots and be close to her family. She currently serves on the Somerset Board of Selectman and is proud to be able to serve and to give back to the community that raised her.
