

DEB GEARTY
MANUFACTURER REPRESENTATIVE – DIRTT

Deb has specialized in design, project coordination, management & consultant services related to interior environments for over 20 years. A team player who prides herself on personal service, exceptional responsiveness, and creative problem solving, Deb is known for her meticulous attention to detail while balancing functional, aesthetic and budgetary aspects of interior environments. She is NCIDQ certified, has a Bachelor of Science in Design from Arizona State University, College of Architecture and Environmental Design and attended Wentworth Institute of Technology. Deb considers herself a lifelong learner with a growth mindset who enjoys participating and volunteering with various community, industry and charitable organizations; staying connected with students and emerging professionals through engagement in educational, networking & mentoring activities.