

LINDSEY FORTUNATO TODISCO

ARCHITECT AND PROJECT MANAGER – FORTUNATO CONSTRUCTION GROUP

Lindsey Fortunato Todisco is a licensed architect and project manager at Fortunato Construction Group. Lindsey was an Ariocho scholar and fellow at Wentworth Institute of Technology, graduating with a B.S. in architecture in 2011 and a Masters of Architecture in 2012. She began her career with JCJ Architecture in design and marketing in Boston, and joined Fortunato Construction Group almost four years ago. In that time, her work has been focused on design, project management, marketing, business development, and strategic planning.

Outside of her work at Fortunato, Lindsey teaches freshman studio classes as an adjunct professor in the architecture department at Wentworth. Lindsey is the co-founder and interim president of the Wentworth Institute of Technology Architecture Alumni Club. She's focused on bridging the divide between design and construction professionals and promoting collaboration across disciplines through the Construction Institute's Industry ReDesign workshop series.
