Equal Opportunities for Health: Overcoming Racial, Ethnic and Socioeconomic Disparities in Connecticut

The 2010 Annual Meeting and Conference of the Connecticut Public Health Association
Friday, October 22, 2010

Connecticut
Public Health Association

Promoting Public Health in Connecticut Since 1916

Proudly sponsored by the Connecticut Health Foundation

Schedule

Brian D. Smedley, PhD, MPH

is Vice President and Director of the Health Policy Institute of the Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies in Washington, DC. In this position, Dr. Smedley oversees all of the operations of the Institute, which was started in 2002 with funding from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The Institute has a dual focus: to explore disparities in health and to generate policy recommendations on longstanding health equity concerns.

Dr. Carmen Nevarez, MD, MPH, is the President of the American Public Health Association. She is also Vice President for External Relations and Preventive

Medicine Advisor for the Public Health Institute. She currently leads development of Dialogue4Health, a web-based conferencing center that uses webinars, social networking and other resources to encourage collaboration between the prevention community and those communities whose work impacts health. Dr. Nevarez maintains a clinical practice, specializing in gynecology and preventive medicine.
