

Keynote: Friday, October 2
Rachel Druckenmiller, MS – Founder and CEO, Unmuted

PRESENTATION

C<sup>3</sup> – Igniting Intentional Leadership

What leadership skills will be needed for the future of work? In this digital age, as technology continues to take center stage, human skills and authentic, intentional leadership are more important than ever. As HR professionals, what are the skills to develop in yourself and in your leaders to stay relevant and influential in the future?

This keynote will empower you and equip you with practical skills to boost your influence and impact, so you can be a catalyst for change and a more effective and connected leader. Leaders who implement the skills explored in this session will foster greater courage, curiosity and connection, and our workplace cultures will be positively impacted because of your future-ready, human leadership.

BIO

Rachel Druckenmiller, MS is the Founder & CEO of Unmuted, a training and speaking company focused on building resilience, confidence and influence in today's leaders. Recognized as the #1 Health Promotion Professional in the U.S. and a 40 Under 40 Game Changer, Rachel is a national thought leader and dynamic speaker. She's on a mission to empower people to use their voices courageously to speak up, speak out and have a positive impact in the world. With expertise in resilience, wellbeing and leadership, Rachel is a catalyst who ignites people to live and lead more intentionally so they can thrive at work and at home. She has a Master of Science degree in Health Science and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology.

Learn more:

Rachel posts daily inspirational videos on LinkedIn (sometimes singing!). Follow her there and on her website, www.UnmutedLife.com. She is also offering live and interactive virtual training on resilience for organizations and their employees: www.unmutedlife.com/covid19.