PRESENTERS: Samuel M. Lemon, Ed.D., Marissa B. Bluestine, Esquire, Robert C. Keller, Esquire

In 1931, a 16-year-old African American boy is executed by electric chair after being convicted of murder here in Delaware County, Pennsylvania. The child, Alexander McClay-Williams, is the youngest person ever to be put to death in PA. Samuel M. Lemon, Ed.D., the great-grandson of the first African American member of our Bar Association, who represented the child at trial, has spent the last thirty (30) years investigating the homicide and the trial. Dr. Lemon now comes forward with astonishing, detailed information that shows a flawed, racist system that led to a terrible miscarriage of justice.

Dr. Lemon will be joined by Marissa B. Bluestine, the legal director of the Pennsylvania Innocence Project and Robert C. Keller, Esquire, who will discuss the procedural history of the case and the trial and explore avenues that may be pursued to address the injustice that took place over 85 years ago.

To be assured a reservation, please complete the form below and mail with your check made payable to the Delaware County Bar Association, Attn.: Karen Newell, 335 West Front Street, Media, PA 19063, no later than Friday, June 10, 2016. P: (610) 566-6627, Ext. 222; Fax: (610) 566-7952; E-mail: Karen@delcobar.com.

- Worth: 1.0 Substantive Law CLE Credit Hour

Presenters: We are pleased to announce that David Gates, Director of Policy and Senior Attorney in the Harrisburg Office for the Pennsylvania Health Law Project, will be our guest. You may not know what MLTSS stands for YET. But, rest assured there are huge changes coming to Medicaid and long-term care for PA residents.

Managed care begins with the introduction of a Managed Care Organization (MCO) into our long-term care delivery system. What role will the MCO play in terms of intake, assessment of level of care and case management for accessing Medicaid? What procedural steps will be changed to apply for Medicaid and will these steps create any barriers to accessing the services? How will COSA's role (as our AAA) change once we are under the managed care system? What about nursing home Medicaid, how will the new managed care system work? If all this sounds unfamiliar, please know that as of April 1st of this year, there was already a significant change!

All these issues, as well as others, fall under the new system of Managed Care for Long-Term Care Services (MLTSS). Any lawyer that assists those over age 60 with financing long-term care must attend this important session.

President Judge Chad F. Kenney, Linda M. Anderson, Esquire and Elizabeth T. Stefanide, Esquire will also participate on our panel.

Priority will be given to preregistration. Please complete the form below and return with your check (made payable to the Delaware County Bar Association) to Karen Newell, DCBA, 335 West Front Street, Media, PA 19063.

Organizers: Linda M. Anderson, CELA and Beth Stefanide, Esquire.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION
VOLUNTARY SETTLEMENT PROGRAM
2016 PROGRAM DATE

Date: June 16, 2016
Time: 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.
Place: Delaware County Bar Association
Cost: Free

This Alternative Dispute Resolution Voluntary Settlement Program is sponsored by the ADR Committee of the Delaware County Bar Association. The following date is available at this time.

On June 16, 2016, the parties and their counsel may appear before two (2) settlement facilitators—generally one from the Plaintiff’s Bar and one from the Defense Bar; they will jointly conference the cases and attempt settlement or give a neutral evaluation. It is anticipated that such input will assist the parties in further negotiations or help them settle their cases. Any recommendation is advisory only, and is provided as a voluntary service to the Delaware County Bar Association members, or other parties who have cases before our Delaware County Courts.

Please call Andrew D’Amico, Esquire at (610) 565-6700 to place your case on the list for June 16, 2016. Sign up will be limited for this morning session and will be on a first come, first served basis.

LAWYER ADVERTISING

The DCBA Board of Directors, at the recommendation of the Legal Journal Committee, has adopted a new rule permitting Lawyer Advertising in the Legal Journal. Lawyer ads must comply with the prescribed format to be considered for publication. The cost of placing your ad in each issue of the Legal Journal is $75.00 for a half page and $100.00 for a full page. Simply complete the Lawyer Advertising form that was e-mailed to the membership and submit it by e-mail to tracy@delcobar.com or if you prefer, complete and print the form and fax it to the attention of Tracy Price at (610) 566-7952.

ESTATE AND TRUST NOTICES

Notice is hereby given that, in the estates of the decedents set forth below, the Register of Wills has granted letters testamentary or of administration to the persons named. Notice is also hereby given of the existence of the trusts of the deceased settlers set forth below for whom no personal representatives have been appointed within 90 days of death. All persons having claims or demands against said estates or trusts are requested to make known the same, and all persons indebted to said estates or trusts are requested to make payment, without delay, to the executors or administrators or trustees or to their attorneys named below.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND FORECLOSURE SALE

Re: George T. Sikorski, 34 Dora Drive, Media, PA 19063; George T. Sikorski, Fair Acres Geriatric Center, 340 North Middletown Road, Media, PA 19063; Michael T. Sikorski, POA for George T. Sikorski, 9 Stonepath Court, Rockville, MD 20854

WHEREAS, on November 22, 2004, a certain Mortgage was executed by George T. Sikorski as Mortgagor in favor of Cardinal Financial Company, Limited Partnership, and recorded December 2, 2004, in Delaware County Record Book 3356, Page 768. The Mortgage was assigned to Financial Freedom Senior Funding Corp. recorded December 2, 2004 in Book 3356, Page 777. The Mortgage was further assigned to MERS recorded October 9, 2009, Book 4640, Page 1995. The Mortgage was further assigned to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development recorded December 11, 2012, in Book 5235, Page 1134; and

WHEREAS, a default has been made in the covenants and conditions of the Mortgage in that the Mortgagor has failed to make the payment due on January 15, 2015 and this payment remains wholly paid as of the date of this Notice and payment has not been made to bring the loan current;

WHEREAS, the entire amount delinquent as of January 28, 2016 is $123,159.90; WHEREAS, by virtue of this default, the Secretary has declared the entire amount of the indebtedness secured by the Mortgage to be immediately due and payable.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to powers vested in me by the Single Family Mortgage Foreclosure Act of 1994, 12 U.S.C. §3751 et seq., by 24 CFR part 27, Subpart B, and by the Secretary's designation of me as Foreclosure Commissioner, recorded on May 3, 2006 in Book 03790, Page 0360, Notice is hereby given that on TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 2016 at 9:30 a.m. local time, all real and personal property at or used in connection with the following described premises ("Property") will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder:

ALL THAT CERTAIN lot or piece of ground with the buildings and improvements thereon erected, situate in the Township of Upper Providence, County of Delaware, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as shown on Final Subdivision Plan of Property of A. Fred Manno, Made by G. D. Houtman and Son, Civil Engineers and Land Surveyors, dated May 13, 1973, and recorded in Plan Case 12, Page 185, as more fully described as follows, to wit:

BEGINNING at a point on the Northeasterly side of Dora Drive (33 feet wide), said point being measured South thirty-one degrees, sixteen minutes East, one hundred seventy-three feet along said side of Dora Drive from its intersection (if extended) with the title line in the bed of State Road (40 feet wide).

CONTAINING in front or breadth along the Northeasterly side of Dora Drive fourteen feet and extending of that width in length or depth Northeastwardly between parallel lines at right angles to the said Northeasterly side of Dora Drive seventy-two feet.

BOUNDED on the Northwest by Lot 4, on the Southeast by Lot 6 and on the rear by land now or late of Donald P. McKay.

BEING known as Lot No. 5 on said Plan.
 BEING Folio #35-00-00326-27.

BEING the same premises which A. Fred Manno by Deed dated January 24, 1979 and recorded February 2, 1979, in the Recorder of Deeds Office in for Delaware County, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book 2683, Page 259, granted and conveyed unto George T. Sikorski.

The Sale will be held at the Delaware County Courthouse, on the outside main steps of the Delaware County Courthouse, 201 West Front Street, Media, Pennsylvania. The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development will bid $123,159.90.

There will be no proration of taxes, rents or other income or liabilities, except that the purchaser will pay, at or before closing, her prorata share of any real estate taxes that have been paid by the Secretary to the date of the foreclosure sale.

When making their bids, all bidders except the Secretary must submit a deposit totaling $12,316.00 (10% of the Secretary's bid) in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made out to the Secretary of HUD. Each oral bid need not be accompanied by a deposit. If the successful bid is oral, a deposit of $12,316.00 must be presented before the bidding is closed. The deposit is non-refundable. The remainder of the purchase price must be delivered within thirty (30) days of the sale or at such other time as the Secretary may determine for good cause shown, time being of the essence. This amount, like the bid deposits, must be delivered in the form of a certified or cashier's check. If the Secretary is the high bidder, he need not pay the bid amount in cash. The successful bidder will pay all conveyancing fees, all real estate and other taxes that are due on or after the delivery of the remainder of the payment and all other costs associated with the transfer of title. At the conclusion of the sale, the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them.

The Secretary may grant an extension of time within which to deliver the remainder of the payment. All extensions will be for 15-day increments for a fee of $500.00 to be paid in advance. The extension fee shall be in the form of a certified or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary of HUD. If the high bidder closes the sale prior to the expiration of any extension period, the unused portion of the extension fee shall be applied toward the amount due.

If the high bidder is unable to close the Sale within the required period, or within any extensions of time granted by the Secretary, the high bidder may be required to forfeit the cash deposit or, at the election of the foreclosure commissioner after consultation with the HUD Field Office representative, will be liable to HUD for any costs incurred as a result of such failure. The Commissioner may, at the direction of the HUD Field Office Representative, offer the Property to the second highest bidder for an amount equal to the highest price offered by that bidder.

There is no right of redemption, or right of possession based upon a right of redemption, in the mortgagor or others subsequent to a foreclosure completed pursuant to the Act. Therefore, the Foreclosure Commissioner will issue a Deed to the purchaser(s) upon receipt of the entire purchase price in accordance with the terms of the sale as provided herein. HUD does not guarantee that the property will be vacant.

The scheduled foreclosure sale shall be cancelled or adjourned if it is established by documented written application of the Mortgagor to the Foreclosure Commissioner not less than three (3) days before the date of the Sale or otherwise that the default or defaults upon which the foreclosure is based did not exist at the time of service of this Notice of Default and Foreclosure Sale, or all amounts due under the Mortgage Agreement are tendered to the Foreclosure Commissioner, in the form of a certified or cashier's check payable to the Secretary of HUD, before public auction of the property is completed.

The amount that must be paid to pay off the Mortgage prior to the scheduled sale is $123,159.90 as of January 28, 2016, plus all other amounts that would be due under the mortgage agreement if payments under the mortgage had not been accelerated, advertising costs and postage expenses incurred in giving notice, mileage by the most reasonable road distance for posting notices and for the Foreclosure Commissioner's attendance at the sale, reasonable and customary costs incurred for title and lien record searches, the necessary out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Foreclosure Commissioner for recording documents, a commission for the Foreclosure Commissioner, and all other costs incurred in connection with the foreclosure prior to reinstatement.

Tender of payment by certified or cashier's check or application for cancellation of the foreclosure sale shall be submitted to the address of the Foreclosure Commissioner provided below.

In re: R.M.D.Common Law Marriage – Civil Action Law – Declarations of Common Law Marriage – Declaratory Judgments – Requirements for a Common Law Marriage – Clear and Convincing Evidence – Same-Sex Marriage – Rights and Benefits of Surviving Spouses

Historically, the right to marry was limited by both federal and state law. Notably, the union of marriage was only permitted between a man and a woman.

Over time, with significant developments, marriage has been held to be a fundamental right protected by the Constitution.

The right to marry, whether as a heterosexual couple or a same-sex couple, is a liberty interest protected by the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the United States Constitution.

Pennsylvania laws that once banned same-sex marriages and forbid the recognition of same-sex ceremonies that occurred outside of the Commonwealth violates the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment and thus, is unconstitutional.

The Commonwealth recognizes common law marriages contracted on or before January 1, 2005. Pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. Section 3306, the proper procedure to declare a common law marriage valid is by Declaratory Judgment.

In order to support the proposition that a common law marriage existed between two people, the Court must find by clear and convincing evidence that the couple continuously held themselves out to be married; examining factors such as constant cohabitation, reputation of marriage, and proof of an agreement to enter into a marriage.

The Court held:

After a hearing on Petitioner's Declaratory Judgment Complaint for a Declaration of a Commonwealth Law Marriage, the Court found overwhelming evidence, both testimonial and through corroborating exhibits, that prior to January 1, 2005, Petitioner and now her deceased same-sex partner fulfilled the requirements of a common law marriage.

Petitioner and her partner held themselves out to be a married couple for thirty-nine years, purchased a condo together, vacationed together, socialized together, shared in martial responsibilities and expenses, and executed complimentary Living Wills that designated each other as surrogate to make all medical treatment decisions for the other. In addition, as soon as the couple was legally allowed to marry in Pennsylvania, they celebrated their commitment in a ceremonial marriage. Friends and family testified that the two were very much in love and that the whole town knew they were together as a couple and that the only thing stopping them from legally marrying was the law.

As Petitioner and her partner shared their lives as spouses in every way and with the recent developments in same-sex marriage, the Court entered a Declaratory Judgment, declaring a retroactive common law marriage, entitling Petitioner to Widow's Insurance Benefits with the Social Security Administration.

Opinion by the Honorable Barry C. Dozor

ORDER AND DECLARATION OF THE VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE

AND NOW, to wit, this 21st day of March, 2016, upon consideration of Petitioner R.M. D Verified Declaratory Judgment Complaint for Declaration of Common Law Marriage Pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S.A. Section 3306 and a hearing on March 10, 2016, it is DECLARED and DECREED that the relief requested in the Petition is GRANTED.

This Court hereby declares that R M. D and C A. R entered into a valid and enforceable marriage, under the Pennsylvania Common Law, on September 27, 1995 and remained married under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania until the death of C A. R on August 11, 2014. Their marriage is valid and enforceable, and they are entitled to all rights and privileges of validly licensed married spouses in all respects under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

For all the reasons set forth herein, found in Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, attached hereto and incorporated herein, R M. D and C A. R met every requirement in the Pennsylvania law for this Court to recognize their marriage as a valid, legal and enforceable common law marriage under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

BY THE COURT:

/s/Barry C. Dozor

Barry C. Dozor, J.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION OF LAW

AND NOW, this 21st day of March, 2016, the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are hereby declared and affirmed, and incorporated in the Order and Declaration of the Validity of Marriage.

A. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. This is an action in which Petitioner, R M. D, is seeking to have the court retroactively declare that a Common Law Marriage had occurred between her and her same-sex partner, C A. R.
2. The Petitioner, R M. D is a resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania residing in the Borough of Media, Delaware County, Pennsylvania.
3. Venue is proper in this court as both the Petitioner and her life partner have continuously resided in Delaware County, Pennsylvania.
4. 23 Pa.C.S.A. Section 3306, provides that a "Declaratory Judgment" is the proper procedure to declare a Common Law Marriage valid.
5. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recognizes Common Law Marriages contracted on or before January 1, 2005. See 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 1103.
6. In 1968, Ms. D and Ms. R met at a softball tournament. The two began dating in 1974 and Ms. R moved into Ms. D apartment in 1975. In 1995 Ms. D and Ms. R purchased a condominium together in Holly House, 501 N. Providence Road, Media, Delaware County, Pennsylvania 19063. Both names appear on the Deed and both were on the mortgage.
7. The two lived together, acted, and held themselves out to all as a married couple for thirty-nine (39) years, until the death of Ms. R in August 2014.
8. Throughout the relationship they constantly told each other, and others, that they were married.
9. Throughout their relationship Ms. D and Ms. R lived as a married couple. They vacationed together, socialized together, and shared in marital responsibilities including caring for each other when sick and sharing family, personal, and marital expenses.

10. A constant conversation between Ms. D and Ms. R centered upon the fact that they wanted to get married but the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania did not recognize same-sex marriages. They discussed either going to another State or having a non-recognized ceremony in Pennsylvania but they ultimately decided that they wanted to wait until their relationship and love was legally recognized in the State where they lived.
11. As evidenced by the parties marriage license and record, marked Petitioner's Exhibit, P-2, Mayor Robert Diamond certified that the Petitioner and C A. R were legally and ceremonially married on August 6, 2014. The Mayor of the town where the Petitioner and C A. R had resided testified that everyone in our small town knew that R and C were together as a couple and they were always together and inseparable ... vacationing together ... traveling with each other ... with Roberta taking care of her ailing Life Partner during time of illness ... with the parties very much in love and were so very happy that they could finally legally get married in Pennsylvania after so many years of loving each other.
See Notes of Testimony as well as Affidavit of Robert L. Diamond incorporated into the evidence.
12. This Court finds the testimony of R M. D and Mayor Robert Diamond as credible.
13. On September 27, 1995 the Petitioner and C A. R purchased together a condominium located in the Borough of Media, Delaware County, Pennsylvania as evidenced by Exhibit-D attached to Petitioner's Motion, with both parties co-borrowing and co-guaranteeing the loan on said property marked as Exhibit-D to Petitioner's Motion.
14. With regard to the parties jointly owned Media, Delaware County, Pennsylvania residence, testimony confirmed that the parties shared expenses, taxes, utilities, maintenance and all responsibilities to maintain thereof.
15. On October 12, 2009, both Petitioner and C A. R executed complimentary Living Wills designating each other as surrogate to make all medical treatment decisions for each other if either party should be incompetent, in a terminal condition, or in a state of permanent unconsciousness. See Petitioner's Exhibits-I thru J of Petitioner's Motion.
16. On October 12, 2009 each of the parties executed complementary Durable Power of Attorney documents naming each other as Agent on behalf of each other with broad powers to handle the property of the other, of which may include powers to sell or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice or approval of the other party. See Petitioner's Exhibit-K of Petitioner's Motion.
17. Although September 27, 1995 is the first documentary evidence of their union, there is an abundance of testimony to confirm that as early as "sometime around 1993" the parties communicated to others that they were married. Petitioner credibly testified that "it felt right and we lived like all married couples we knew except that Pennsylvania wouldn't allow us to get married."
18. The Petitioner, R M. D, and her Life Partner, C A. R lived together as a couple in a married relationship. They considered themselves to be a married couple in every way, and those familiar with R M. D and C A. R relationship, including their family, friends, and neighbors considered them to be married.

19. Ms. D and Ms. R discussed formally getting married on many occasions but the existing Laws of the Commonwealth prevented formal ceremony and license.
20. In early summer 2014 Ms. R health took a turn for the worse and she was told that her death was inevitable.
21. As Pennsylvania Law now permitted a formal ceremony and marriage license, Ms. D and Ms. R wed on August 4, 2014.
22. R M. D and C A. R would have celebrated their commitment to each other in a ceremonial marriage in Pennsylvania but for the fact that Pennsylvania prohibited same-sex marriage during most of their entire relationship. They always hoped that someday they could be married in a ceremony that Pennsylvania Law would license and recognize, but unfortunately, the discriminatory aspects of Pennsylvania Marriage Laws were not addressed in time for their hope to become reality sooner.
23. For many years, prior to January 1, 2005, Ms. D and Ms. R shared their lives as spouses in every way, living together, owning a marital home, sharing all residential, family and personal expenses, legally designating and trusting each other for all significant decisions involving each other's physical health and well-being and all financial and business affairs. They vacationed together and lived in every way as a family until Ms. R untimely death.
24. Ms. D and Ms. R met every requirement in the Pennsylvania Law for this Court to recognize their marriage as a valid, legal, and enforceable Common Law Marriage.
25. As the law requires equal protection under the law, due process, and equality to all, as marriage is a fundamental right, this Court is compelled to grant the Petitioner's Relief.
26. Their status as a same-sex couple should not prevent this Court from declaring their Common Law Marriage to be valid. See 23 Pa. C.S. §1103; see also Whitewood v. Wolf, 992 F. Supp.2d 410, 413 (M.D. Pa. 2014) ("by virtue of this ruling, same-sex couples who seek to marry in Pennsylvania may do so, and already married same-sex couples will be recognized as such in the commonwealth.").
27. The Petitioner demonstrated a long standing marriage embodying a love that has endured in sickness, sorrow, and even the recent death of Ms. C. R. Their union reflected the highest ideals of love, fidelity, devotion, sacrifice and family.

B. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Historically both State and Federal laws limited persons rights to marry and associate freely. Over time, as societal ideals changed, so did these laws.
2. There is no doubt that there have been significant doctrinal developments in recent years to classification and definition imposed by Pennsylvania Marriage Laws based on sexual orientation.
3. Marriage was historically only allowed to take place between a man and a woman. Baker v. Nelson, 291 Minn. 310, 191 N.W. 2d 185 (1971) (Defense of Marriage Act).
4. Marriage was historically only allowed to take place between people of the same race.

5. Sex between persons of the same sex was historically a criminal offense. Bowers v. Hardwick, 478 U.S. 186 (1986).
6. Over time these limitations referred above have been found to be unconstitutional.
7. Over time, and through many decisions, marriage has been held to be a fundamental right which is protected by the Constitution.
8. The United States Supreme Court held that sex between persons of the same sex was not a criminal act. Lawrence v. Texas, 539 U.S. 558 (2003)
9. The United States Supreme Court has held that that mixed race marriages were a right afforded under the Constitution. Loving v Virginia, 388 U.S. 1, 87 S.Ct. 1817 (1967).
10. The United States Supreme Court has recently held that any laws that prevented marriage between same sex partners were unconstitutional as a violation of the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. Obergefell v. Hodges, 576 U.S. ____, 135 S. Ct. 2584, (2015). This most recent United States Supreme Court decision holds that the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution requires a state to license a marriage between two people of the same sex.
11. Even before the decision in Obergefell, Federal and State laws that prohibited the recognition of same-sex marriages had been deemed unconstitutional. United States v. Windsor, 570 U.S. __ 133 S.Ct. 2675 (2013); Whitewood v. Wolf, 992 F. Supp.2d 410.
10. As a result of numerous cases most federal benefits have been extended to same sex couples.
11. The right to marry, whether it is a heterosexual or a same-sex couple, is a liberty interest protected by both the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the United States Constitution. The Petitioner and her life partner had a fundamental right to marry which was infringed by the same sex marrying ban. See Whitewood v. Wolf, 992 F. Supp. 2d 410 and In Re: Stevenson, 40 A.3d. 1212 (Pa.2012).
12. In Obergefell, the United States Supreme Court confirmed the validity of Petitioner's argument, holding that "the right of same sex couples to marry that is part of the liberty promised by the Fourteenth Amendment is derived ... from that Amendment's guarantee of the Equal Protection of the Laws." 135 S. Ct. 2604.
13. The Obergefell elaborated upon the unequal and unconstitutional nature of laws that limit marriage to opposite-sex couples, the Supreme Court stated:

It is now clear that the challenged laws burden the liberty of same-sex couples, and it must be further acknowledged that they abridge central aspects of equality. Here the marriage laws enforced by the respondents are in essence unequal: same-sex couples are denied all the benefits afforded to opposite-sex couples and are barred from exercising a fundamental right.

135 S. Ct. at 2604.
14. The Supreme Court concluded its opinion with an insightful truth:

No union is more profound than marriage, for it embodies the highest ideals of love, fidelity, devotion, sacrifice, and family. In forming a marital union, two people become something greater than once they were. As some of the petitioners in these cases demonstrate, marriage embodies a love that may endure even past death. It would misunderstand these men and women to say they disrespect the idea of marriage. Their plea is that they do respect it, respect it so deeply that they seek to find its fulfillment for themselves. Their hope is not to be condemned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civilization's oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right.

135 S. Ct. at 2608.

15. The Obergefell decision confirms that there is no basis upon which to deny the relief that Petitioner's request.
16. The Whitewood decision declared the Pennsylvania Marriage Laws that banned same-sex marriages and forbid recognition of same-sex ceremonies occurring outside of the Commonwealth as unconstitutional in violation of the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. Whitewood v. Wolf, 992 F. Supp.2d 410.
17. In declaring the Pennsylvania Marriage Laws to be in violation of the Due Process Clause, the Whitewood Court stated

With the weight and impetus of the foregoing Supreme Court jurisprudence in mind, this Court is not only moved by the logic that the fundamental right to marry is a personal right to be exercised by the individual, but also rejects Defendants' contention that concepts of history and tradition dictate that same-sex marriage is excluded from the fundamental right to marry. THE RIGHT PETITIONERS SEEK TO EXERCISE IS NOT A NEW RIGHT, BUT IS RATHER A RIGHT THAT THESE INDIVIDUALS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN GUARANTEED BY THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION.

Id. at 423(emphasis added).

18. It is exactly this argument that the Whitewood Court relied upon in reasoning that if the Commonwealth's law banning same-sex marriage is unconstitutional then the law which prevented recognition of same-sex marriages from other States was also unconstitutional.

Having reached the conclusion that same-sex marriage is included within the fundamental right to marry and is infringed upon by 23 Pa.C.S.A. Section 1102, it necessarily follows that 23 Pa.C.S.A. Section 1704, which refuses to recognize same-sex marriages validly performed in other jurisdictions, is also unconstitutional.

Id. at 424.

19. For over 130 years the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania recognized Common Law Marriages between a man and a woman. In 2005 the legislature passed Pennsylvania Title 23 Section 1103 which banned common law marriages from that date forward BUT EXPLICITLY ALLOWED THE RECOGNITION OF COMMON LAW MARRIAGES THAT TOOK PLACE ON OR BEFORE JANUARY 1, 2005.

20. The Court finds sufficient proof and corroborating evidence prior to January 1, 2005 of constant cohabitation, reputation of marriage, proof of an agreement to have entered into a marriage, with the parties continuously holding themselves out as married and living as married.
21. Conduct, words, actions and responsibilities of Petitioner and her Life Partner are proof of an express agreement to enter into a legal relationship of marriage. The Court finds clear and convincing evidence of an abundance of indicia of Common Law Marriage.
22. Based upon the overwhelming credible testimony, and corroborating evidence, Ms. D and Ms. R fulfill the requirement for a Common Law Marriage.
23. The Court further finds that the earliest point in time the testimony, and documentary evidence confirm the parties Common Law Marriage is September 27, 1995, the date of the parties acquiring real estate.
24. The Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution requires States to license a marriage between two people of the same sex. The Obergefell Court determined that the right to marry is a fundamental right inherent in the liberty of the person, and under the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment couples of the same sex may not be deprived of that right and liberty. The Court now holds that same-sex couples may exercise the fundamental right to marry.

135 S.Ct. at 2604-2605.
25. Under Obergefell same-sex couples can now marry and be afforded all of the protections and rights afforded them under the Constitution. These constitutional rights include, but are not limited to, inheritance rights, survivor benefits, property rights and custody.
26. The Obergefell Court reasoned that in denying these rights to same-sex couples, a state, such as, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, would be denying same-sex couples Equal Protection guaranteed them under the Constitution.

It is now clear that the challenged laws burden the liberty of same-sex couples, and it must be further acknowledged that they abridge central precepts of equality. Here the marriage laws enforced by the respondents are in essence unequal: same-sex couples are denied all the benefits afforded to opposite-sex couples and are barred from exercising a fundamental right.

Id. at 2064.
27. The status as a same-sex couple of Petitioner and Ms. Riley should not prevent this Court from declaring their Common Law Marriage to be valid. See 23 Pa.C.S.A § 1103; see also Whitewood, 992 F. Sup 2d at 431 (“by virtue of this ruling, same-sex couples who seek to marry in Pennsylvania may do so, and already married same-sex couples will be recognized as such in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.”).
28. Another Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas has retroactively granted a same-sex Common Law Marriage and held the rights and benefits granted by the Constitution shall be afforded to the surviving spouse. In In Re: Es-

- tate of Kimberly M. Underwood (Bucks County Court of Common Pleas 2014-EO681-29, (2015), the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas Court has retroactively declared that a same-sex couple who met in 1988, and had a non-legally binding ceremony in 2001, had a valid and enforceable marriage under Pennsylvania Common Law.
29. R D and C R meet all the qualifications for a Common Law Marriage in that they cohabitated for 39 years, they spoke present words of intent in that they told each other that they were married, and they held themselves out to the community as a married couple. These actions were confirmed in the testimony of witnesses and Exhibits submitted to the court, especially that of the Mayor of their home town and who stated that “everyone in our small town know that R and C were together as a couple.”
 30. To deny a Common Law Marriage to Ms. D and Ms. R would deny Ms. D of the rights and benefits that, until Obergefell, were denied same-sex couples but freely given by the Commonwealth and Federal Government to opposite-sex spouses.
 31. To deny a Common Law Marriage to Ms. D and Ms. R would deny them the Due Process and Equal Protection guaranteed them under the Constitution.
 32. Due to the fact that Obergefell and Whitewood hold that any laws that uphold restrictions on marriage based on sex are unconstitutional and must be struck down, the only course of action for this Court is to enter an Order and Declaration of Common Law Marriage as this is the only action that would be in accordance with the law.
 33. An Order shall hereby be entered and Declared that R.M. D and C.A. R entered into a Common Law Marriage on September 27, 1995, that they have been legally wed since that date and that they are accorded all rights, privileges and benefits that all legally married couples are guaranteed under the United States Constitution.
