Who should partner with EAPA?

- Mental Health businesses that want to create a relationship with EA Professionals
- Professional Development Companies
- Social Media firms
- Human Resource Departments in need to quality EA Professionals
- Professional Societies and Associations
- Publishers
- Consulting firms
Exclusive Sponsorship Opportunities

Why should you partner with EAPA?

The EAPA trainings are consistently sold-out. They provide quality content with outstanding instructors. As a sponsor of the EAPA regional training, sponsors provide invaluable resources for Employee Assistance Professionals in corporate, labor union, large and small EAP focused organizations. Sponsoring this event is a great avenue to reach and interact with this audience to build impactful, long-standing relationships.

2. Double booth holders will receive a 10% discount on booth fees, an additional one registration fee plus one additional EXPO passes.
3. Electricity will be a fee of $75 per booth/table.
4. Boxes shipped to the hotel will result a charge of $50 per item.
5. Package sponsors receive a number of registrations allocated in their package - no additional passes unless more booths are purchased.

Cancellation of Exhibit Space
Cancellations must be made in writing and received at the EAPA office in Arlington, Virginia. No refunds are available to exhibitors who reserve booth space during the on-site Pre-Sales for the following year:
A. Received on or before May 1, 2024, 75% Refund
B. Received between May 2, 2023, and July 1, 2024, 50% Refund
C. Received on or after July 2, 2024, No Refunds Issued

Exhibit Space Assignment
EAPA will assign space of a “first come, first served” nature. EAPA reserves the right to reassign space for the benefit of the exhibitor or for the betterment of the exhibition. In the event all requested spaces are occupied, EAPA will assign the first available space as applicable. Exhibitors participating in the 2024 EAPA Institute & EXPO will have assignment priority.

Acceptance of Exhibits
EAPA shall have the sole right and authority to approve the tone, general content, and subject matter of exhibits so that nothing may be offensive to attendees or other participating exhibitors. EAPA reserves the right to cancel any exhibit contract that does not comply with the official EAPA rules and regulations governing exhibits.

Staffing of Booths
Exhibits must be staffed during all EXPO events.

Installation of Exhibits and Displays
A. All displays must be erected and completely arranged for viewing by the date and hour officially announced for the opening of the exhibit. Space not occupied by the close of the exhibitor move-in period, as specified by EAPA, will be forfeited. The space may then be resold, reassigned, or used by EAPA without refund, unless prior approval is obtained in writing from EAPA management. If the exhibit or materials are on hand, EAPA reserves the right, with no liability whatsoever for damage, spoilage, or loss, to setup any display that is not in the process of being erected by the given move-in deadline or to order such work to be done at the sole expense of the exhibitor.
B. Noisy or unsightly work in any exhibitor’s booth area is prohibited during show hours.
C. Goods received after the opening of the exhibit must be delivered to the booth/table and arranged at times other than the official show hours.

Removal of Exhibits and Displays
A. Any exhibitor who tears down (dismantles booth/table and/or booth/table display) prior to the official close of the show will be in violation of their contract and will be subject to an additional deposit ($200) and other consequences for future show participation.
B. Early dismantling will affect invitation to future EAPA shows or assignment in future EAPA exhibitions.

Exhibitors are solely responsible for their own materials and should insure the exhibit against loss or damage from theft, accident, vandalism, fire, or other causes. All property of an exhibitor’s care, custody, and control in transit to, from, or within the confines of the Exhibit Hall.

Care of Exhibit Area and Equipment
Exhibitors and their agents shall not injure, or otherwise cause harm or damage to any part of the exhibit area, or to booth/table materials, and equipment of another exhibitor. If such damage occurs, the exhibitor causing such damage is liable to the owner of the property so damaged.

Public Policy
A. Exhibitors agree to follow all federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention, electrical safety codes, public safety, and to the sale of merchandise to the public.
B. All booth decorations must be flame-proof and all hangings must clear the floor.
C. Ifduring booth/table inspection, non-compliance with these rules and regulations is found, or if the exhibit presents a fire hazard/danger or a danger to public safety, EAPA management, with no liability whatsoever for damage, spoilage, or loss, to order such work to be done at the sole expense of the exhibitor.

EAPA promotes professionalism in the appearance of the exhibit. Any part of an exhibitor’s display that does not lend itself to an attractive and professional appearance, such as unfinished sides or end panels will be draped at the exhibitor’s expense. Management reserves the right, with no liability whatsoever for damage, spoilage, or loss, to order such work to be done at the sole expense of the exhibitor.

Union Information
A. Material handling—Please refer to the Exhibitor Service Manual for material handling information and regulations.

Exhibitor’s Authorized Representatives
Each exhibitor shall provide EAPA show management, in advance, with the name and title of the person(s) who will attend the exhibition and responsible for the installations, operations, and removal of the exhibit by 09/28/24. Said representatives shall be authorized to enter such contract(s) as may be necessary, for which the exhibitor shall be responsible.

Security
Exhibitors are solely responsible for their own materials and should insure the exhibit against loss or damage from theft, accident, vandalism, fire, or other causes. All property of an exhibitor’s care, custody, and control in transit to, from, or within the confines of the Exhibit Hall.

Liability and Insurance
A. The Employee Assistance Professionals Association (EAPA), its service contractors, any officers, staff members, or directors of any of the same will not be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage, including that by fire, theft, flood and labor disputes, which may occur to an exhibitor, or to his/her agents, employees, guests, or customers, or to his/her property or wares, arising from any cause whatsoever, prior to, during, or subsequent to the period of this exhibit.
B. Each exhibitor by signing the contract to exhibit expressly understands that he/she releases EAPA from and agrees to indemnify it against all claims for any such loss, injury, or damage.
C. The exhibitor assumes all responsibility for all loss, theft, or damage to exhibitor’s displays, equipment and or property while on hotel premises and hereby waives any claim or demand it may have against hotel arising from such loss, theft, or damage.
D. It is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to carry insurance protection covering damage and loss to exhibitor.
E. It is the sole property and to obtain business interruption and public liability insurance against the injury to the person and property of others.

D. There is no exemption from sales tax for sales made by exhibitors at trade shows sponsored by tax-exempt organization. EAPA bears no responsibility for the collection of sales tax on sales made by exhibitors. The exhibitors are required to assess and collect all required sales taxes on all sales of taxable items made to organizations not exempt from sales tax. Sales tax exemption identification numbers should be requested from exempt organizations by the exhibitor and properly document the waiving of sales tax.
