- Topic: Cloud Data Lakes: The Foundation for a Digital Organization
- Description: The ongoing global pandemic has changed the world as we know it. Traditional business models have struggled to survive or have been disrupted massively; industries that are thriving are those that have been ensuring the continuous delivery of value. Their organizational agility and resilience has been driven by digital transformation catalyzed by data.

The path forward requires an accelerated adoption of solutions that organize data dynamically, at scale, and ready for translation into insights. Thus, ensuring long-term growth and desirable business outcomes.

In this session, our panelists discuss the journey to a data-first organization; sharing insights and learnings from successful cloud data lake implementations across geographies and verticals.

- Participants:
  - MODERATOR: Sachin Arora, Partner & Head of Lighthouse, KPMG India
  - Vijay Balakrishnan, Group Chief Data Officer, Michelin
  - Nitin Agarwal, President & Group CIO, Edelweiss
