Schools do the “dance of the lemons” or detrimental practice of shifting incompetent teachers from 1 school to another. Low performing schools staff 1st year teachers or special ed teachers who may not be qualified. 1 great step is to focus on teacher quality. @epfp_iel #epfpWPS

Instead of asking "are students ready for school" we should be asking "are the educational institutions ready to prepare the students who are coming to them". That changes the conversation! Thanks for the reframe John E. Uvin @epfp_iel

I may not win the #epfpWPS tweet award, but I'll be sure to win the #epfpWPS "like" and "retweet" award! Great panel discussion with @dr_lillian @MichaelPetrilli @ds_excelencia @uvinjo_us on "The Evolution of the Federal Role in Education"

How to engage today's youth? "Ask them what they want to do rather than telling them what to do. Be real with them and praise them for wanting to get involved.

Tell them the positives as well as the negatives. There is a right way to do things."

Unfortunately, low income families have very little choice, yet they are the ones who are used to promote school choice... #epfpWPS

"I am an American and no one has the right to make me feel less!" As educators we must accept the responsibility to help our students understand who they are and their civic responsibility to the world, not the country but world. @epfp_iel #epfpWPS
