

Join us: Wednesday, January 24, 2018

2:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. (EST)

As we break down and discuss:

”Debt Capital Markets Indicators, Credit Default Swaps, Bonds and Loans”

Presented by speaker:* Thomas Fitzsimmons – Director at Wells Fargo Securities

Thomas Fitzsimmons is a Director in the Wells Fargo Structured Rates group with responsibility for structuring capital markets based trade finance solutions.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Tom was an Executive Director with JPMorgan where he was part of the Credit Liquidity Solutions team where his responsibilities included the Trade Receivable Put, Bankruptcy Claims Trading, the Alternative Letter of Credit and various illiquid asset monetization strategies.

Prior to working on the CLS team, Tom was head of Investor Marketing for the JPM Short Term Fixed Income team where he was responsible for a group charged with developing liquidity for various capital markets funded structured finance vehicles.

Tom went to Sacred Heart University where he earned degrees in both International Business and Political Science. While at Sacred Heart, Tom was a 4 year captain and member of the Men's division 1 volleyball team.

In this educational webinar you will learn:

- Debt Capital Markets indicators
- Credit Default Swaps
- Bonds and Loans and what they are telling us about the current health of the retail space

Who Should Attend?

- Credit Management Professionals
- Cash Management Professionals
- Accounts Receivable Professionals
- Controllers/Accounting Managers