What is a transitioning membership?

SHRM provides active members who are unemployed at the time of the membership renewal a one-time opportunity to extend their membership for up to one year—at no cost! SHRM believes this continued affiliation to our loyal members will help transitioning members stay current on the issues impacting the HR profession and provide them with the needed resources to assist them in their job search.

Who qualifies for transitioning membership?

Any active member who is unemployed at the time of his or her membership expiration date or who becomes unemployed up to 90 days after the membership lapses. A member must be unemployed at the time he or she applies for transitioning membership. Student members do not qualify for transitioning membership.

Before activating a transitioning membership, the requestor must communicate his or her unemployment status to SHRM via e-mail.

Members residing outside the United States

Transitioning members residing outside the U.S. will receive benefits of the Internet-only membership, which includes complete access to all areas of SHRM Online as well as discounts to the SHRMStore®, professional development opportunities, and more.

What benefits are included with a transitioning membership?

All SHRM free and discounted member benefits for up to one year are included. The only benefits not included are voting privileges and the ability to hold office on a SHRM panel or board.

Benefits include:

- Full access to SHRM Online (www.shrm.org)
- Access to HR Jobs, including job alert-emails
- Access to the SHRM HR Career Guide
- Free participation in SHRM Webcasts
- SHRM Knowledge Center
- Listing in the SHRM online membership directory
- Subscription to HR Magazine® (U.S. only)
- Online publications, including HR Magazine®, SHRM® Legal Report, Workplace Visions®
- Access to HR Focus Areas
- Online research, articles and white papers
- E-mail bulletins including What's New at SHRM, HR Week and more
- SHRM member mailings (U.S. only)
- Discounts on SHRM professional
- Discounts on SHRMStore® purchases

For a comprehensive list of member benefits, visit www.shrm.org/memberkit

What happens when I find a new job?

Members in transitioning membership status may reinstate their professional membership at any time during their transitioning membership period by paying the annual renewal fee of $160 (or $95 for Internet-only members residing outside the U.S.).

Important note:

Transitioning membership is available to members ONE TIME ONLY and will not begin until the SHRM Member Care Center receives and processes the application form. Members will be notified when the membership has been approved and reactivated. Membership identification numbers and passwords will remain the same.
