

Na Leo Ola

Newsletter of the Hawaii Medical Association

Volume 5, Issue 10

October 2025

Ola Pono Ike 2025 Was a Great Success

On October 25, 2025, more than 400+ physicians, medical students, residents and guests gathered at the Hilton Hawaiian Village to renew old acquaintances, make new friends, and to celebrate medical excellence in Hawai'i. Congratulations to Physician of the Year Angela M. Pratt, MD; Lifetime Achievement Award recipient Jerry Wang Van Meter, MD; and President's Award honoree Ka'ohimanu Dang-Akiona, MD. You are standard setters for how medicine can be practiced with excellence, dedication, compassion, and grace in Hawai'i.

To see more photos from Ola Pono Ike 2025, visit bit.ly/48WyxJR.

L-R: congratulations to Jerry Wang Van Meter, MD; Angela M. Pratt, MD; and Ka'ohimanu Dang-Akiona, MD

Mahalo Nui Loa!

To our incredible Ola Pono Ike 2025 team, honorees, volunteers, sponsors, and supporters - thank you from the bottom of our hearts. Your dedication, generosity, and aloha spirit made this year's celebration truly unforgettable. From coordinating honorees and guests to crafting lei, managing registration, and ensuring every detail was perfect, your contributions uplifted our entire community.

Together, we honored the legacy of care and excellence in Hawai'i's physician community. We are deeply grateful for your kōkua and look forward to continuing this journey with you.

With heartfelt appreciation,
Marc Alexander
Executive Director
Hawaii Medical Association

