

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Wednesday 17 July 2013 THEORY INTO PRACTICE – THE DELIVERY OF A QUALITY DIGITAL AGED CARE SERVICE

11.00am	The future challenges in aged care and the role IT plays Martin Lavery Catholic Health Australia	MR02	Chair: Dr Andrew Georgiou
11.45am	Implementing an electronic client relationship record system Llyr Otto and Regan Stathers The Whiddon Group
12.15pm	Applying virtual environments to dementia care Mandy Salomon Swinburne University
12.30pm	Aged Care Informatics SIG AGM	MR02	Lunch and exhibition Hall H
1.30pm	A movement sensor alarm system to aid falls prevention in aged and healthcare A/Prof Renuka Visvanathan Adelaide Geriatrics Training and Research with Aged Care (G-TRAC) Centre, University of Adelaide and Dr Damith Ranasinghe Auto ID Lab, University of Adelaide		Chair: Dr Lemai Nguyen
2.10pm	Evidenced based assessment for older people; the implementation of interRAI as a national methodology in New Zealand Andrew Downes National interRAI Software Service (NZ)
2.30pm	A spatial informatics for aged care Hamish Robertson Ageing Research Centre
2.45pm	Care provision expectations of remote children of ageing parents A/Prof Klaus Veil University of Western Sydney
3.00pm	Conference concludes		