CPD POINTS

You are required to sign in at the beginning of the day at the registration desk so that we can provide you with a certificate of attendance after the conference. However each accredited organisation may still require you to self-record and register your hours with them post conference.

Australian Association of Practice Managers (AAPM)

HITWA 2014 has been allocated two (2) AAPM CPD points per one (1) hour of education by The Australian Association of Practice Managers Ltd (AAPM).

Australian Computer Society (ACS)

ACS Certified Members can claim 7 CPD Hours for attending this conference. Please log your CPD at www.acs.org.au/logcpd

Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP)

GPs who partake in the QI&CPD program can self record their participation in this activity by logging onto the RACGP QI&CPD website: <http://qicpd.racgp.org.au/qicpd-home>. Please contact your QI&CPD state faculty for any further queries.

Royal Australian College of Medical Administrators (RACMA)

Fellows or Associate Fellows of The Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators (RACMA) that participate in the HITWA 2014 conference may claim the activity under the RACMA CPD Activity Standard 2b Maintenance of Knowledge and Skills, at a maximum of eight (8) points per day, or one (1) point per hour.
