Tuesday 12 November 2013

2.30pm  Welcome Susan Smith

Synopsis of challenges and direction - Queensland Healthcare’s CIOs and Old Health Division of Health Service and Clinical Innovation

2.40pm  Major challenges and current strategic initiatives for Mater Health Services, a 107 year old Queensland Institution
Chair: Susan Smith
Mal Thatcher
Chief Information Officer, Mater Health Services

2.55pm  IT in healthcare - what are the missing links?
Hugh Peterken
Chief Information Officer, Metro North Hospital & Health Services

3.10pm  Telehealth - Enabling access to healthcare
Andrew Bryett
Director, Clinical Access and Redesign Unit, Queensland Health

3.25pm  ICT as a service and contestability; Queensland public health ICT service delivery game changers
Ray Brown
Chief Information Officer, Queensland Health

3.40pm  CIO Panel Discussion
Facilitator: David Hansen

4.00pm  Afternoon tea and a word from our networking sponsor M&T Resources

4.25pm  Big data

4.25pm  A word from our sponsor
Central Data Networks
Chair: Colin Scobie

4.30pm  The use of Geographic Information Systems and linked, large, disparate datasets to evaluate the Australian population’s access to Intensive Care and the impact of access upon patient outcomes
Victor Nicholls

4.40pm  Monitoring social media for communicable disease surveillance: An Australian study
Sankalp Khanna

4.50pm  Monitoring activities of daily living of independent living older people using environmental sensors
Qing Zhang

5.00pm  Big knowledge: Classifying large ontologies with Snorocket
Alejandro Metke

5.10pm  Making e-health work

5.15pm  A word from our sponsor
Ocean Informatics
Chair: Joe Griffiths

5.25pm  Telehealth commercialisation: An investigation into store and forward payment

5.35pm  Integrating mobile health in a chronic disease management network
Hang Ding

5.45pm  Computerisation of perinatal data entry: Midwives perceptions of data accuracy
Alison Craswell

5.55pm  Defining an allied health professional data set specification - following the patient journey
Alicia Chaplan

6.05pm  Supporting clinical research and knowledge management

6.10pm  A word from our sponsor
iMDsoft
Chair: Toni Laracuente

6.20pm  Five years on: Tales from the Clinician’s Knowledge Network
Tim Redhead

6.30pm  Broadening access to clinical trial data
Simon Gibson

6.40pm  Hospital level analysis to improve patient flow
Sankalp Khanna

6.50pm  A technological evaluation of the Microsoft Kinect for automated behavioural mapping at bed rest
Simon McBride

7.00pm  A word from our networking sponsor
AEHRC

7.05pm  Close and thank you

7.10pm  Wine and cheese

8.00pm  Event concludes www.hisa.org.au/event/hic-reprise