

David Gianascoli Partner and Co-Founder

David attended Old Dominion University and graduated with a BA in Finance, with an emphasis on Real Estate. In 1992, David started Gee's Group with his father, Joseph. His brother Michael joined in 1996 and the team has built Gee's Group into a real estate development company that specializes in the building of class "A" office buildings in Hampton Roads.

David is an avid baseball fan. He is the past President of the Great Neck Baseball League in Virginia Beach, VA and has coached many travel teams. David has served on numerous boards and committees and has also been a member of many local business and charitable associations. He is most proud of his time spent as a member of the United States Navy League board of directors and is a life time member. David is married with three children. His hobbies include golf, fishing, hunting and watching a good baseball game.
