

Erika Fallon, PharmD, RPh

Erika Fallon is a 2008 graduate for Albany College of Pharmacy. Since 2009 she has worked as the supervising pharmacist at Fallon Wellness Pharmacy in Latham, NY, and is currently compounding non-sterile medications for various patient populations, including pediatric patients. She collaborates often with local pediatricians and parents to help create medication solutions through compounding. Additionally she serves on IACP's board of directors and on their legislative committee.
