

Robert W. Stannard, Esq.

A partner at Bendin Sumrall & Ladner, LLC, Robert has a broad litigation practice with a focus on medical malpractice and healthcare law. He represents hospitals, physicians, allied health professionals, and pharmacies in cases of alleged liability, compliance, and contract negotiation. Robert represents clients in civil litigation and in matters before medical and pharmacy boards. Robert graduated Magna Cum Laude from Hendrix College with a degree in philosophy and theology and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his law degree from The University of Georgia School of Law. Robert has an AV Peer Rating with Martindale Hubbell.