- Business Managers

WHERE ARE THEY FROM?*

Delegates representing 65+ countries

HOW MANY?

1,000+ delegates

WHY ATTEND?

The International Congress of Clinical Neurophysiology is traditionally one of the most important scientific events for physicians practicing clinical neurophysiology. Most of them are neurologists who, in addition to performing some of the wide variety of diagnostic neurophysiological evaluations, actually treat patients with different neurological conditions such as epilepsy, neuropathic pain, neuromuscular disorders, etc. The Congress also attracts numerous physiatrists and residents in neurology and physical medicine, as well as basic investigators.
