

International Fruit and Vegetable Juice Association

Honorary IFU membership

The title can be awarded to an outstanding individual that has given distinguished service over a long period of time (>10 years) to the association and significantly contributed to its aims and objectives benefiting the juice industry as a whole. Candidates will be retired from official positions for at least 2 years.

2 IFU members can nominate candidates eligible for Honorary membership to the Executive Committee who must decide the award unanimously.

Only one person can be appointed an honorary member in one year.

Honorary members have lifetime membership and do not pay annual membership fees. They are eligible to attend commission meetings and the Assembly of Delegates but do not have any voting rights. They can access members areas of the web site and are entitled to member discounts for methods, guidelines and tickets for IFU events.
