

International Fruit and Vegetable Juice Association

Subscription Fees for Friends of IFU

The IFU membership is based on the Articles of Association and yearly subscription fees contained therein. When you become a member, you subscribe automatically to various benefits, of which the most valuable one – from a financial perspective – is the possibility to use the IFU methods for a certain amount of employees.

Other benefits include access to literature, the possibility to work in the IFU commissions, networking with IFU experts, discounts for events, suppliers and services, etc.

There are two categories of membership for Friends of IFU:

All types will be explained in details after this graphic, which should give you a first overview:

Category	I	II
Type
Friends of IFU	EUR 100 no votes	EUR 500 no votes

Category I: only valid for one individual person
 Yearly subscription fee: EUR 100
 Votes in the Assembly of Delegates: 0

Financial Benefit:

You receive one discount per year for either the Juice Summit or a workshop.

Category II: for an individual person, university, research institute, “small” company etc. with less than 25 employees and/or a turnover of less than 25 million EUR
 Yearly subscription fee: EUR 500
 Votes in the Assembly of Delegates: 0

Financial Benefits:

You receive up to 5 single IFU methods per year per person free of charge (instead of EUR 1.245 per person for non-members). Additional methods can be bought at the member price (without discount).

You receive discounts for Juice Summit and workshops for all your employees.