E&O RISK MANAGEMENT: HOW TO MANAGE CHANGING RISKS AND OPPORTUNITIES

A CONTINUING EDUCATION SESSION

How to Manage Changing Risks and Opportunities is an interactive seminar that looks at E&O Risk Management from the agency perspective. The insurance industry is ever-changing so it is more important than ever to take a close look at agency operations and where E&O vulnerabilities exist. This seminar will utilize claim statistics, case studies, storytelling, risk assessments and questionnaires to provide an engaging environment for participants to learn in.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION & INSTRUCTIONS

The registration fee is $50 for all attendees. This fee includes class materials. Coffee will be available at 8:45am. The session runs 9:00am through 4:00pm with lunch provided. This class is approved for six continuing education credits.

Complete the registration information, proceed to checkout, and complete recipient information. A printable confirmation will be provided when you register. The program also qualifies for the 10 premium credits for qualifying E&O policyholders. If you have questions, please call 608.256.4429.

COURSE SCHEDULE

The session runs from 9:00am through 4:00pm with a lunch break at noon.

CANCELLATIONS

For a full refund minus a $10 processing fee, please give five or more business days' notice. Cancellation requests received with less than 5 business days' notice will not be eligible for a refund. Registration transfers are accepted with 5 business days' notice.

INSTRUCTOR

Mallory Cornell is the Director of Risk Management for IIAW. Joining the team in April 2017, Mallory continues to build the risk management playbook within IIAW to provide additional resources to members. Through innovative new practices, key risks will be identified and mitigated in a tailored fashion to meet your business needs. Mallory is passionate about risk management and the value it can bring to an organization, large or small.
