

PSAP Program Scholarship Award

Scholarship Program

IITAP has chosen to make a new scholarship program available, the Pastoral Sex Addiction Professional (PSAP) Program Scholarship Award.

PSAP Scholarship Award

The scholarship is meant to help provide services to faith-based communities by providing funding for the IITAP PSAP® training modules 1 and 2.

Eligible applicants are Pastors with a M.Div., lay counselors, Rabbis, counseling/care ministry professionals, small group leaders, deacons, elders, and para-ministry professionals. .
Scholarship candidates must acknowledge a financial need and be able to identify how they will utilize the training to the betterment of their community.

IITAP will award a scholarship to cover registration costs for both modules to the award recipient(s). All recipients are responsible for any remaining costs, as well as any travel expenses (for in-person training), or equipment for online training.

Note: Prior winners of any IITAP-administered scholarship program are not eligible.

Application Requirements

1. A personal and background statement written by the applicant (no longer than two pages) describing how completing the IITAP PSAP® training will be applied to career goals and why sexual addiction treatment is an integral part of his/her career path.
2. Complete the online IITAP Training Application https://iitap.com/general/register_member_type.asp? (be sure to include all supporting documents).
3. Two professional letters of recommendation in support of the applicant's application and career goals.
4. Sign acknowledgment of the application criteria and requirements (last page of this document).

Please Note: Incomplete applications will not be reviewed by the Committee.

Selection Criteria

A Selection Committee of three to four persons, appointed by the IITAP, will review applications and determine award winners. Applications will be judged using the following criteria, listed in order of importance:

1. Commitment to sex addiction recovery as reflected in the personal statement
2. Training application
3. Letters of recommendation
4. Professional presentation

Scholarship awards will be given to those demonstrating the highest levels of commitment to the profession as communicated in the personal statement, how the training will be utilized to benefit the community, strong letters of recommendation, and financial need.

The Award Process

The Selection Committee will meet once per year. Alternate candidates are chosen in the event those selected for the scholarship are unable to attend the IITAP training in one of the next two training series, or if a student recipient fails to submit a written acceptance within the stated period after being notified of award. IITAP will announce the names of award recipients as they are notified and accepted.

Award recipients are required:

1. To provide written acceptance of the award.
2. To identify which of the upcoming Module 1 training events he/she will attend.
3. To notify IITAP of any change in address and/or employment.

Submission Requirements

The deadline for both scholarships is Oct. 31, 2025.

All application information should be sent as one package via email (as attachments, Dropbox, etc.) to info@iitap.com.

Incomplete applications will not be reviewed by the Committee. After you have verified that the submission is complete, please wait for the announcement of scholarship recipients.
