

VIRTUAL MID-YEAR BRIEFING WEBINAR SERIES

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5th

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Combating the COVID-19 Pandemic: Lessons Learned from the Field

- Patrick Callahan, Colonel, New Jersey State Police
- Dr. Bill Hazel, Former VA Secretary of Health and Human Resources, and, Current Senior Advisor for Innovation and Community Engagement, GMU
- David Mulholland, Administrator, Arlington County, VA Emergency Communications Center
- Steve Ambrosini, Program Director, IJIS Institute - Moderator

Agencies around the country are facing unheard of challenges as they seek to keep their communities safe and healthy, while attempting to maintain the continuity of effective business operations. IJIS has had a front-row seat to these operations and has learned from many of the experts who have successfully dealt with some of these challenges. This webinar will present a discussion addressing key experiences, resulting efforts, and available best practices effecting both policy and operations.

1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Session #2 – Leveraging Technologies for the Public-Sector

- Michelle Gregory, Countywide Data Analytics Coordinator, Fairfax County Department of Management and Budget
- Benji Hutchinson, Vice President of Federal Operations, NEC Corporation of America
- Kshemendra Paul, Executive Director/Chief Data Officer, Data Governance and Analytics for US Department of Veteran Affairs
- Ashwini Jarral, Former Executive Director, IJIS Institute, and, Current Founder and COO, IDYA4 - Moderator

Any pandemic, crisis or disaster results in enormous stress to business operations. This particular crisis has highlighted even more the necessity to implement new technologies for “remote operations” and improved preparedness while maintaining effective operations. This session will take an innovative approach to identifying what is missing (policies, training & education, technologies, etc.), and how solution providers can help combat these issues affecting the public-sector.

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. Session #3 – Outlook on Public Sector Financial Resources Post-Pandemic

- Karhlton Moore, Executive Director, Ohio Office of Criminal Justice Services
- Angelina Panettieri, Legislative Manager, Information Technology and Communications, National League of Cities
- Mike Costigan, Acting Director, Bureau of Justice Assistance - Moderator

The current Pandemic will inevitably leave huge financial impacts on everyone. How will agencies be able to sustain and successfully deliver services in the public-sector? This session will provide insight into some of these effects while discussing new opportunities for agencies and providers to maintain cross-sector partnerships. The session will also review valuable resources and reference points available for consideration.

---

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6th

---

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.    Session #4 – Post-Pandemic Planning

- Eddie Reyes, Director, Office of Public Safety Communications, Prince William County
- Rex Pagerie, Assistant Commander, Fairfax County (VA) Police Department
- Timothy A. Shaw, President & COO, GlobalFlyte Inc.
- Beth Skinner, Director, Iowa Department of Corrections – Moderator

The COVID-19 pandemic has identified key gaps in conducting business for both the public and private-sector entities. Despite the inevitable impact this crisis will leave on business operations, the criticality of cross-sector and cross-agency collaboration has been exposed as more vital than ever before. This session will proactively pinpoint operational processes that are changing and will emphasize practices that will help operations thrive in the future.

---

1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.    Session #5 – A Culture Change in Service Delivery

- Brian O’Hara, Deputy Chief, Newark (NJ) Police Department
- Sarah Lochner, Director of Court Services, Wabash County, IN
- Joe Wheeler, Chief Executive Officer, MTG Management Consultants
- Brian Riggs, Riggs Enterprise – Moderator

As multiple crises impact our operational worlds, how should we best adapt to change while meeting the operational imperatives? What impacts have these crises had on the current and ultimately future workforce? In order to strive for post-pandemic operational success, it is critical to discuss potential lasting impacts to the workplace environment. By hearing from representatives from businesses and agencies who have successfully reinvented their work cultures in a matter of months, this session will provide attendees with exclusive insight into the processes that will help prevent some of the current issues in the workplace from occurring again.

---

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.    Session #6 – Lack of Information Sharing in the Public-Sector

- Chris Trucillo, Senior Vice President, Chief of Police & Office of Emergency Management, New Jersey Transit
- Erin Dalton, Deputy Director, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania Department of Human Services
- Beth Skinner, Director, Iowa Department of Corrections
- Stephen L. Morris, FBI CJIS Division Assistant Director (Retired); IBM Associate Partner, Global Business Services (GBS) - Moderator

While many issues have been exposed over the past several months, the current crisis has illustrated how important information sharing is during these difficult times to effectively meet the lifesaving demands of practitioners that strive to keep our communities safe and healthy daily. This webinar will focus on demonstrating the benefits of utilizing information sharing technologies to more effectively meet the needs of your organization while addressing the skepticisms.

---