

Pamela Carter

VP, Business Development for Global Services
Boeing Defense, Space & Security
2010 Women of Color Technology All-Star

Pamela Carter served as an aircraft maintenance officer in logistics in the U.S. Air Force for 26-years, before she joined Boeing. Before she joined Boeing in 2004 her teamer team was responsible for engineering, spares and engine management support. She also led logistics and initiatives to create more effective relationships. Carter is a two-time winner of the Boeing Business Development Leadership Award. She also won the 2012 Amelia Earhart Society Woman in Leadership Award for her courage, vision and groundbreaking achievements, both in aviation and for women. Carter has bachelor degrees in psychology and philosophy from West Virginia State University, and a master's in education from the University of Maryland. She also has a degree in national security policy resourcing from the National Defense University's Industrial College of the Armed Forces.