

Restricted Plates: Arkansas

Plate Type	Description
Transporter Plate	Issued to any person or corporation, other than an automobile dealer, regularly engaged in driving or towing vehicles from manufacturer to dealer or from dealer to dealer.
Farm to Market Bus Plate	Issued for buses domiciled in Arkansas operating under authority of the Arkansas Transportation Commission as a common carrier for hire which does not extend beyond fifty (50) miles in any direction.
Natural Resources Plate	Issued to vehicles used exclusively for the noncommercial hauling of timber products produced in this state and for those vehicles used in hauling unfinished and unprocessed forest products and clay minerals and ores originating in Arkansas from the point of severance to a point in the state at which they first undergo any processing, preparation for processing, conversion, or transformation from their natural or severed state.
Public Property Plate	Issued to vehicles owned by counties, cities and incorporated towns, volunteer rescue squads, regional airports and regional water distribution districts.