ISE Student Development Award winners announced

The Institute of Student Employers (ISE) announced the winners of its Development Awards at today's ISE Student Development Conference in London.

More than a hundred student recruitment and development professionals turned out for the annual awards ceremony as part of the day-long conference.

Seven organisations collected awards, spanning employers, universities and suppliers.

ISE Development Award winners 2018

- Best Graduate Induction Award - Lloyds Banking Group
- Best Post Programme Development Award - HSBC
- Best Preparation for Work: Single Initiative Award - University of Hertfordshire (in collaboration with Smart Resourcing Solutions Ltd)
- Best Preparation for Work: Overall Strategy Award - University of York, Careers and Placements
- Best School-leaver and Apprentice Development Programme Award - Capgemini

Delegates attending the ISE Student Development Conference were among the first to hear the findings of this year's ISE Development Survey. The day's programme also featured an expert line-up of speakers including an inspirational opening keynote on creative leadership from business consultant, Chris Baréz-Brown.

Stephen Isherwood, Chief Executive at the ISE said: "These awards are testament to the commitment and investment of employers and universities in the training and development of students and graduates. Each year the job of judging gets tougher, so congratulations goes to the winners as well as all of this year's fantastic finalists."

About the Institute of Student Employers

The Institute of Student Employers (ISE), formerly the Association of Graduate Recruiters \(AGR\), is an independent, not-for-profit member organisation that was established in 1968.

As the UK's leading independent voice for student employers, the ISE's vision is that every businesses success is maximised by full access to student talent.

The ISE achieves this by bringing together employers, the education sector and supplier partners, providing leadership and support in all aspects of student recruitment and development.

ISE activities include:

- Promoting excellence and innovation in the resourcing, assessment and development of emerging talent including school leavers, apprentices and graduates
- Providing expert information and insight to ISE member organisations, creating engaged communities for professional networking and sharing of best practice
- Delivering comprehensive research on a range of issues affecting graduate, intern and apprenticeship recruitment and development, including current and future trends and benchmarking data
- Investing in the professional development of members to enhance their skills and knowledge, maximising their career opportunities within the profession
- Influencing key policy areas affecting student employment and the education sector
- Building a strong professional organisation with the right structure and team capabilities to deliver the services and support members require to fulfil their objectives
