ISE annual conference announces high profile line-up of speakers

The Institute of Student Employers (ISE) has revealed the headline speakers for its Annual Student Recruitment Conference and Awards taking place on 8 and 9 July 2019.

The Institute's flagship event will feature a motivational session from record-breaking round the world cyclist and TV broadcaster Mark Beaumont. Celebrated author of The Mother Of All Jobs, Christine Armstrong will share what she's learned about combining both work and life.

Plenary speakers also include Hashi Mohamed, a Barrister at No5 Chambers and BBC broadcaster who will discuss social mobility and the role of employers while Bobby Duffy, Director of the Policy Institute at King's College London, will explore the myths and realities of the millennial generation.

The conference also offers a series of seminars and opportunities to network as well as a student recruitment-focused exhibition from a range of industry suppliers.

The two-day event will come to a close with the annual Gala Awards Dinner, recognising the best in student recruitment and development. One of the country's finest comedians Shappi Khorsandi will host the evening.

Stephen Isherwood, Chief Executive of the ISE said: "This is our most prestigious event of the year so it's fantastic to have such an inspiring array of speakers to look forward to. Supporting the keynote sessions will be a selection of more intimate seminars and we'll be bringing together employers and universities for valuable networking opportunities."

The ISE Student Recruitment Conference and Awards 2019 takes place at the Hilton Manchester Deansgate. Tickets and more information are available at ise.org.uk.

About the Institute of Student Employers

The Institute of Student Employers (ISE), formerly the Association of Graduate Recruiters \(AGR\), is an independent, not-for-profit member organisation that was established in 1968.

As the UK's leading independent voice for student employers, the ISE's vision is that the success of every business is maximised by full access to student talent.

The ISE achieves this by bringing together employers, the education sector and supplier partners, providing leadership and support in all aspects of student recruitment and development. ISE activities include:

- Promoting excellence and innovation in the resourcing, assessment and development of emerging talent including school leavers, apprentices and graduates
- Providing expert information and insight to ISE member organisations, creating engaged communities for professional networking and sharing of best practice
- Delivering comprehensive research on a range of issues affecting graduate, intern and apprenticeship recruitment and development, including current and future trends and benchmarking data
- Investing in the professional development of members to enhance their skills and knowledge, maximising their career opportunities within the profession
- Influencing key policy areas affecting student employment and the education sector
- Building a strong professional organisation with the right structure and team capabilities to deliver the services and support members require to fulfil their objectives
