

Erzsébet Vecsernyés, RN, BSc

Erzsébet Vecsernyés has been a Nursing Director at National Korányi Institute for Tb and Pulmonology for 2 years.

Prior to she was a Nursing Director at a County Respiratory Hospital, in Deszk. She obtained a Bachelor Degree in Science in Nursing and Health Management at Szeged University.

She has been working in the field of hospital health care for approximately 20 years in addition has been teaching and examining in BSc Nursing. She works for the National Health Education Institution as a consultant and takes part in the Courses for Respiratory Nurses as a lecturer and examiner. Regularly takes part in conferences organized by the Hungarian Respiratory Society and gives presentations in the Nursing Sections, chairs the meetings.

Between 2009 and 2011 she was the director of the Nursing Section of the Hungarian Respiratory Society and since 2011 she has been the Secretary of the Nursing Section of the Hungarian Respiratory Society.

Further memberships:

Hungarian Asthma Nurse Committee
Chamber of the Hungarian Health Professionals
Committee of the Hungarian Nursing Directors
Respiratory Foundation
Hungarian Respiratory Foundation

She carried out a research on the patients' knowledge with chronic respiratory disease (medication, therapy, disease itself). She organized patient education programs and dealt with organization of smoking cessation programs for health professionals in the County Respiratory Hospital, in Deszk. She coordinates the operation of the Toll-Free Smoking Cessation Call Center.